Wellthy

Wellthy's Natural Disaster Support

In light of recent natural disasters, Aristocrat Technologies recognizes the challenges that you may be facing. We want you to know that support is available to you and any impacted loved ones.

As a reminder, Wellthy is available to help coordinate logistics for hardships caused by natural disasters, especially when it comes to your family's care needs. You and your family have sponsored access to Wellthy, your benefit partner for family caregiving support. During challenging times, Wellthy's dedicated care experts can assist with various tasks related to disaster relief.

Wellthy's Care Team can:

- Find local support, including shelters, temporary housing cooling stations, and food banks
- Set up services like meal delivery, and medication/prescription delivery, and transportation
- Offer guidance on what to ask and look for when working with personal or homeowners insurance providers after a disaster
- Identify relief and assistance programs at the community, state, and federal level
- Support next steps after applying for disaster relief, including appeals and follow-up communications
- Review benefits available through your employer

You and your family have sponsored access to Wellthy!
